

MERCHANTS SWELL MEMORIAL FUND

Additional subscriptions from private citizens and commercial firms of Washington are being added today to the $10,000,000 fund for the National Victory Memorial Building, according to a report by Mrs. Henry S. Dimock, 1201 Sixteenth street northwest, who is heading the local campaign committee. The slogan, "a dollar for every blue star, five for every gold star," is bringing responses in donations from the owners of home service flags and downtown merchants, whose flags number many stars.

To the list of merchants who subscribed earlier this week, the names of the following concerns have been added: S. Kann and Sons, Parker and Bridget, the Saxon Motor Company, William Hahn and Company, Goldenberg's Department Store, R. P. Andrews Paper Company, Saks and Company, Semmes Motor Company, and Z. D. Blackstone.

WOMAN'S WILL PENSIONS "JACK," THE FAMILY HORSE

"Jack," the old family horse used for many years, is to be taken care of from a monthly allowance to be made by the executor of her estate, "until he shall have become helpless, when he is to be humanely chloroformed."

This proviso is made by Miss Matilda James, of 1308 Massachusetts avenue northwest, who died June 26, in her will, which has been filed for probate.

Miss Elizabeth F. James, her sister, is given a life interest in the estate. At the death of the latter, $20,000 is to go to the Epiphany Church. Home of this city and $30,000 to the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital for the support of the Charles A. James memorial. Richard E. Patro is named executor, and is directed to take care of the horse as indicated.

WANTS WOUNDED TO DEFER ACTION ON REMAIN IN UNIFORM MOTHERS' PENSION

More than 20,000 soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the late world war would be affected by a bill that has been introduced in the House by Congressman Charles R. Davis of Minnesota, giving them the right to wear their uniforms at all times.

The measure affects those men who have received or may receive wounds or injuries in line of duty "that have resulted or may result in such facial disfigurement or bodily deformity as will be likely to cause personal embarrassment or disadvantage in his business or social relations with others."

Before wearing the uniform, however, the bill provides that application must be made to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, who will fix certain regulations.

"There are several hundred of these unfortunate boys at Walter Reed Hospital," Mr. Davis said, in discussing his bill. "In some cases they have undergone operations that resulted in facial disfigurement which would greatly handicap them if they went back into civil life with civilian clothing. The public would shun them. By wearing their uniform and the insignia of the arm of service they represented, the public would understand that the marks were marks of honor."

RULES BAN IS ONLY ON BEER WITH KICK

NEW YORK, June 27.—The circuit court of appeals decided yesterday that the war-time prohibition act is constitutional, that it does not apply to all beer, but only to "intoxicating" beer, and that Federal Judge Mayer had no right to enjoin United States Attorney Francis G. Caffey from prosecuting brewers of 2.75 per cent beer.

The court dismissed the injunction restraining Mr. Caffey from arresting or prosecuting the brewers. Inasmuch as Mr. Caffey has made the general declaration in open court that any one who violated the law would do so at his own peril, a test case may be expected any time.

Welcome Test Case.
According to Emory R. Buckner, associated with Elihu Root and William D. Guthrie as counsel for the brewers, they will welcome a test case. The issue in such a case would be the question of fact as to whether beer containing only 2.75 per cent alcohol is intoxicating. Mr. Buckner says the brewers are ready to submit the evidence of doctors, chemists, and at least fifty men and women who were subjected to experiments, that such beer does not intoxicate.

Meanwhile the brewers will continue to manufacture 2.75 per cent beer and offer it for sale. If it is decided in a test case that 2.75 per cent beer is intoxicating, any brewer who has manufactured it after May 1 is guilty of a crime; and any brewer who sells it after June 30 will be guilty of a crime.

Brewers Win a Point.
Although the injunction against the Federal attorney was dismissed, the brewers won a point in that the decision continued the temporary injunction restraining Richard J. McElligott, acting and deputy collector of internal revenue, from interfering with the manufacture or sale of 2.75 beer. McElligott recently has been issuing stamps on orders from Washington, although at the time the suit started they were being refused.

The general situation with regard to wartime prohibition, which is due at midnight Monday, indicated it may become effective only in part. Either President Wilson will issue a proclamation removing wine and beer from the provisions of the law or the hotel, restaurant and saloon men will ignore the law and continue to sell these drinks as in the past. It is not likely that many will try to sell whiskey or other "hard" drinks until demobilization is actually at an end.

NEGRO IS LYNCHED AND BODY BURNED

ELLISVILLE, Miss., June 27.—Trained for ten days through three south Mississippi counties by poses which included several hundred members of his own race, John Hartfield, negro, confessed assassin of an Ellenville young man, was captured desperately wounded near Collins, yesterday, rushed by automobile to the scene of his crime, hanged to a gum tree and then burned to ashes. His victim witnessed the lynching.

The lynching was conducted in a manner which the authorities characterized as "orderly." Guarded by a committee of citizens of Ellenville, Hartfield was taken first to the office of Dr. A. J. Carter, who after examination of gunshot wounds received when the fugitive made his flight against capture, declared the negro could not live more than twenty-four hours. In the meantime a group of silent men were piling crosssties and brush in a depression in the ground near the railroad trestle. There was no shouting.

The victim of Hartfield's crime was escorted into the physician's office after the wounds had been examined. She positively identified him as her assailant. When she left the negro said to the committee, "You have the right man."

Hartfield was told what the crowd intended doing with him, but only repeated, "You have the right man." Later he said he knew he was going to die, and declared he wished to warn all men, white and colored, to think before doing wrong.

Petitions to Governor Bilbo to prevent the threatened lynching brought a reply from the executive to the effect that he was "utterly powerless," as the State had no troops. "Furthermore," the governor was quoted as saying, "excitement is at such a high pitch through southern Mississippi that any armed attempt to interfere with the mob would doubtless result in the deaths of hundreds of persons. The negro has confessed, says he is ready to die and nobody can keep the inevitable from happening."

COP FINDS BATHING SUIT UNDER SKIRT

NEW YORK, June 27.—Wearing a sweater, an ankle-length skirt, shoes and stockings, Mrs. Anna Goldman, twenty-seven years old, was served with a summons by Patrolman Edward Simmons for violating a park ordinance by walking in Ocean Parkway "not clad in street attire." Mrs. Goldman, her husband, William, and their friend and neighbor, Nicholas Christy, testified that all three demanded "why" when the policeman ordered the lady to "go back" and when the officer replied it was "on account of the bathing suit." Goldman demanded to know how he could know about that.

"Well," said Simmons, according to the testimony, "if you want to know, I'll prove it." Whereupon, they said, the officer lifted the lady's skirt and then handed her the summons.

Magistrate Geisner discharged Mrs. Goldman.
